

JSAP Venues

The 2005 JSAP Fall Meeting will be held at the Josanjima Campus of The University of Tokushima, September 7th to 11th, 2005. The University is located in Tokushima City, on the northern coast of Shikoku island, about one hour from Tokyo's Haneda airport.

The University of Tokushima

The University was established in 1949 and currently consists of the faculties of Integrated Arts and Sciences, Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmaceutical Sciences and Engineering and the graduates schools/institutes of Human and Natural Environment Sciences, Medical Sciences, Oral Sciences, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Institute for Medicinal Resources, Nutrition and Bioscience, Engineering, Institute of Health Biosciences and Institute for Animal Experimentation. Approximately 6000 undergraduates and 1700 graduates (including 200 overseas students) study at one of the three campuses of Josanjima, Kuramoto, and Shinkura.

The JSAP Fall meeting will be held at the Josanjima Campus, about 20 minutes on foot from Tokushima Station, where the Faculties of Integrated Arts and Sciences and Engineering are located and ~5100 students study.

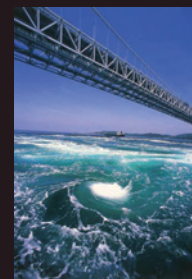

With a population of about 260,000, Tokushima City is the capital of Tokushima Prefecture. The main landmarks and festivals associated with the city are the Yoshino River, the longest on Shikoku, Mt. Bizan, Awa Odori dance, puppet theatre (Ningyo Joruri), indigo dyeing (Aizome) / textile manufacturing (shijira-ori), Naruto suspension bridge and whirlpools, Akashi Straits bridge (connecting Tokushima with Honshu) and the citrus fruit called Sudachi.

Yoshino River

Awa Odori dance

Naruto suspension bridge and whirlpools

Further information:

Tokushima University: RL: http://www.tokushima-u.ac.jp/English/english/top.html